THE NEW LOMBARDO

(It's Brother Victor!)

Sweetest music discovery in years debuts on Majestic Records!

A grand new thrill for phono fans! Young brother Victor Lombardo blossoms out with full grown tune talent that will be shooting his popularity high as the skies. You'll hear why when you hear the smooth, sweet and scintillating sensation he makes of "Oh, My Achin' Heart", with Mark Carter doing the refrains. With this rhythmic release you'll be hearing "Victor" in front of those Lombardo raves, now.

On the other side, Victor Lombardo puts potent platter personality into a new samba sensation, "Come to the Mardi Gras." By the publishers of "My Adobe Hacienda", it's headed for a marathon spin as the new Lombardo ups its "oomph." Vibrating vocals are by The Threesome.

"OH, MY ACHIN' HEART"

"COME TO THE MARDI GRAS"

Speaking:

PLATTER CHATTER!!! You've heard of people hitching their wagon to a star and going places. Here's a recording hit "Peg O' My Heart," recorded by the Harmonicats, a trio of harmonic players. Their platter has passed the 2,000,000 mark.

What most people don't know, however, is that one of the things that made the record a best seller was the terrific guitar work of Sid Fisher in the background. His sweet-fingered obligato helped make the record a work of genius.

We listened yesterday to a few more records featuring Fisher's guitar work at the New York offices of the Vitacoustics company, presided over by Paul R. Cassetta and Johnny Roman, and came away full of goose pimples. This time Fisher was playing for Gene Griffin, a lad who reminds you of Rudy Vallee when Vallee was at his best. If the Griffin-Fisher platters of "How Strange" and "I Understand" don't become top sellers I will eat my copies of them.

Vitacoustics has another hit record in Henry Busse's "The Lady from 29 Palms."
